

We need the "do not call" registry to remain in effect. We have the right to have a private phone number which unsolicited callers should not have a right to call. We should not have to pay extra for caller id just to eliminate picking up unsolicited callers.